

Thomas P. Coyle

2501 Morningstar Road

Education:

Kean University - B.A. Math Education, Minor Psychology

Management courses: International Business Machines several levels of Management courses

IBM/Wharton School of Business – Business Strategy Development

United Research - Business Analysis and Process Reengineering Consulting

Business Experience:

- IBM: Product and Channel Development and Marketing Planning
- United Research/Gemini Consulting: Vice President International Marketing and Communication
Responsible for effectively managing all marketing and communications functions for $500MM consulting firm
- Bellcore/Telcordia: Vice President Professional Services Marketing in Telecom Industry
- Catholic Charities Diocese Trenton: Director Community Development - Monmouth/ Ocean Counties organizing and mobilizing volunteers

Four Seasons Community:

Resident since 2014

Holiday Chorale member 2014-2017

Men's Bocce Co-Chair 2017-2018

Volunteer as requested at many H&R functions

Volunteer Activities:

- Co-Founder and past president of Jersey Shore Junior Golf (Now a The First Tee Organization) 2004-2011
- Managed the funding, planning and implementation of two golf/youth character training facilities in Monmouth and Ocean counties for disadvantaged youth
- Ran major customer, employee and charitable fundraising events
- Member Board of Trustees – Belmar Fishing Club 2002-present

Skills/Knowledge/Accomplishments:

Creative team leadership and enthusiastic team member

Business process effectiveness and organization streamlining

Financial planning

Built one residence and major renovated three residences as the co-contractor with my wife, Pat

Built three residential Bocce Courts

Familiar with town Planning Board activities and common residential law

Have lived in Sea Girt/Manasquan for 22 years

Choir member St Denis Church 2011- present

Statement:

Our community needs to seek out wishes and concerns of its members. Listening is an art but proactive tools like surveys, activity groups' feedback, and understanding "out-of-the-box" innovative ideas can allow an organization to come together and be supportive of one another. I believe in collaboration as an effective management style.