PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

National Bank Examiner (1969-2008)
Comptroller of the Currency, U.S. Treasury Dept.

During my 39 year career, I managed teams of examiners performing legally-required on site examinations of national (commercial) banks. During the period 1991-1996, I was part of a resident exam team based at Chase Manhattan Bank, with overall responsibility for the oversight of corporate and international credit portfolios. From 1997 until 2008, I was part of the international division and supervised a portfolio of federally-chartered branches of foreign banks operating in the US. I conducted examinations of US bank branches overseas; met with executive management of multinational institutions, foreign regulators and central banks. Ancillary responsibilities included intermittent administrative positions, teaching classes in examination areas and speaking engagements with professional banking groups.

STATEMENT

First and foremost, I will work diligently to maintain unity and harmony in our community. We need to have respect for one another and for the governing principles under which we have operated. We should explore changes as needed with common sense and sound logic. My managerial and financial background, combined with my volunteer activities, interest and enthusiasm for the continued sound operation of this community and respect for its residents, have prepared me to pursue the position of Trustee.
