

Obituary for Patrick Campbell

Patrick J. Campbell, 65, of Wall, was born in Chicago and raised in Oak Park, Illinois. While there he attended Triton College in the Chicago area. In 1973 he relocated to Middletown, New Jersey with his wife Debbie, where he was a volunteer First Aid member for over 20 years. In 1992, he moved to Wall Township to raise his family and was a communicant of The Church of St. Denis in Manasquan, and has continued to be an outstanding member of his community. As a vocation Pat worked at Standard Keil Hardware Manufacturing as a system sales manager. From there he went on to become a founding partner of Component Hardware Group Inc. and was honorably recognized with the Ernst & Young Entrepreneur of The Year Award for New Jersey. Pat retired in 2003 and has enjoyed the Singer Island lifestyle, playing golf, long walks with the love of his life Debbie, performing as a youtube "DJ", and enjoying Monday Night Dinners with his beloved family and grandsons. Pat passed peacefully on September 24, 2018 at the Hospital of University of Pennsylvania where he was surrounded by his loving family.

Pat is predeceased by his father, Patrick Joseph Sr. and his mother, Irene Campbell; Pat is survived by his wife of 44 years, Debbie; daughter Amy; daughter Lauren and son-in-law John Perrotto; daughter Tricia and son-in-law Tommy White; grandsons JP Perrotto and Landon White; his sister Debbie Campbell; sister Maureen Maimone and her boyfriend Ken Foster; his brother Michael Campbell and sister-in-law Jill; brother Tim Campbell; and brother Jeff Campbell and sister-in-law Melissa. And many loved nieces and nephews.
